Reference to the Contexts:

1. "But I have no time to blow smoke rings this morning. I am looking for someone to share in an adventure that I am arranging, and it's very difficult to find anyone."
2. "that you think I am no good. I will show you. I have no signs on my door--- it was painted a week ago---, and I am quite sure you have come to the wrong house."
3. "If you had dusted the mantelpiece, you would have found this just under the clock."
4. "Dawn take you all, and be stone to you!"
5. "Mind Bilbo doesn't eat all the cakes! He is too fat to get through key-holes yet."
6. "A wish that is likely to be granted soon enough in the mountains, but show me now your map!"
7. "Dwarves, and this! We found them sheltering in our Front Porch."
8. "We were on a journey to visit our relatives, our nephews and nieces, and first, second, and third cousins, and the other descendants of our grandfathers, who live on the East side of these truly hospitable mountains."
9. "Does it guess easy? It must have a competition with us, my precious! If precious asks, and it doesn't answer, we eats it, my preciousss. If it asks us, and we doesn't answer, then we does what it wants, eh? We shows it the way out, yes!"
10. "Quite safe, yes, it won't see us, will it, my precious? No, It won't see us, and its nasty little sword will be useless, yes quite."
11. "After all he is my friend and not a bad little chap. I feel responsible for him. I wish to goodness you had not lost him."
12. "Can't help it, unless you like to go back and ask the goblins nicely to let you have your pony back and your luggage."
13. "May the wind under your wings bear you where the sun sails and the moon walks."
14. "Don't pretend that goblins can't count. They can. Twelve isn't fifteen and they know it."
15. "Come here Filli, and see if you can see the boats Mr. Baggins is talking about."

16. "I am going to disappear, I shall draw the spiders off, if I can; and you must keep together and make in the opposite direction. To the left there, there is more or less the way towards the place where we last saw the elf-fires."

17. "Is it a crime to be lost in the forest, to be hungry and thirsty, to be trapped by spiders? Are the spiders your tame beasts or your pets, if killing them makes you angry?"

18. "I'll tastewith you, and see if it is fit for the King's table."

19. "These are prisoners of our king that have escaped, wandering vagabond dwarves that could not give any good account of themselves, sneaking through the woods and molesting our people!"

20. "Certainly, O ThorinThrain's son Thrór's son! You must claim your own. The hour is at hand, spoken of old. What help we can offer shall be yours, and we trust to your gratitude when your kingdom Is regained."
