Hadith # 18

It is not proper for a man to keep away from his brother for more than three days, and then when they meet to turn faces away from each other. The better of the two is the one who greets the other first.

(Hadith of Al-Bukhari & Al-Muslim)

Q: Explain the main teachings of this hadith in detail according to:-

- a) What to believe?
- b) How to act?

Key Points:

- Breaking off the relations with your relatives is not allowed in Islam.
- The one who snaps ties with his friends or relatives will not enter the paradise.
- There is no virtue more readily rewarded than the act of reuniting family ties.
- “Brother” means not only your real brother but all the Muslims are brother to one another.
